

Writing sample: 2.3 AI-pasted

This is the second topic and therefore a sample for the analysis. It will focus on describing the benefits of reading a book.

Reading is useful for learning new things as well as maintaining and improving your vocabulary and knowledge. It can be a calming activity, and improve your concentration and attention span. Especially before going to bed, instead of being on your phone, reading a few pages can help you fall asleep more easily and also improve the quality of your sleep compared to being on your phone.
